

Yes, I'm staying in the musical!

Your school must allow you to continue participating in extracurricular activities.

Your school must provide you with the same special services it provides to students with other temporary medical conditions.

One-on-one tutoring is a big help.

We have the right to make up the work we missed.

Your school must allow you to return to the same academic and extracurricular status as before your medical leave began, and give you the opportunity to make up any work missed during your leave.

Your school must protect you from harassment based on sex, including harassment because of pregnancy or related conditions.

I have the right to be protected from bullying!

PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS:

for youth who are pregnant and parenting

Actually, I can still attend class.

Your school must allow you to continue participating in classes.

After she's born, I have a right to take time off to care for her.

Your school must excuse at least 10 days of absences after the birth of your child.

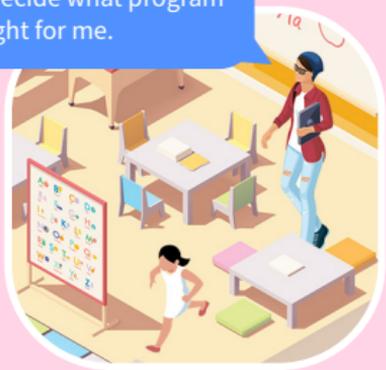

If I need a bigger desk, the school must provide it.

Your school must provide you with reasonable adjustments necessary because of your pregnancy.

I'll decide what program is right for me.

Your school must allow you to choose whether or not you want to participate in special instructional programs or classes.

 More for Healthy Babies.
Every baby counts on you

healthybabiesbaltimore.com